Festival organizers seek volunteers

Volunteers are needed to support the Army birthday celebration at Hedekin Field at Fort McPherson.

Volunteers are needed to help with the children's activities and sporting events, act as score keepers and help with festival set-up and break-down.

To apply as a volunteer, visit www.myarmylifetoo.com, select "Become a Volunteer," and pick Fort McPherson as the Military Community. Under "Select By Organization," choose "Army Birthday Festival." When it opens, click on the "Army Birthday Festival" link and the Festival Volunteer Position Description will open. Go to the bottom of the volunteer position description and select the "Apply" link. Provide the information requested.

For more information, call Jonathan Rackard, garrison operations specialist, Directorate of Plans, Training, Mobilization and Security, at 464-3101.

Emergency Warning Alerting System

The Directorate of Emergency Services staff will conduct repairs and testing on the Emergency Warning Alerting System sirens Tuesday at 8 a.m. at Fort McPherson and Fort Gillem.

For more information, call Roger Snell, chief of prevention, Fire Prevention Division, Directorate of Emergency Services, at 464-3264.

New commander briefing

The Army Community Service (ACS) new commander briefing will be held June 18 at 9 a.m. in Bldg. 62 on Fort McPherson. New unit commanders, sergeants major and first sergeants should attend the briefing.

To make reservations or for more information, call 464-4070.
